We invite you to explore the Clark Fitz-Gerald
Maine Sculpture Trail!

Clark Fitz-Gerald (1917-2004) moved to Castine, Maine in 1956. During his prolific career, he produced public and private sculpture commissions in the United States and England. Many are here in Maine. We hope you will enjoy viewing them as you travel around the state.

Be sure to visit the Castine Historical Society, home of the
Fitz-Gerald Archives.
On exhibit through
October 9, 2023 is “Clark Fitz-Gerald:
Castine’s Celebrated
Sculptor-in-Residence.”
